Email: dpo@meran.eu

2. Categories of Processed Data

Common data: Name, surname, contact details, address, payment information.

Special categories of data: Photographic portraits or video recordings.

3. Purpose and Legal Basis of Processing

a) Execution of the contract and contact purposes (Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR):

Your personal data will be processed for the formalization and management of the contractual relationship (e.g., booking, payment management), including handling any disputes, as well as for sending communications strictly related to the execution of contractual obligations, thereby facilitating the provision of the contracted services.

b) Compliance with legal obligations (Art. 6(1)(c) GDPR):

Your personal data will be processed to fulfill legal obligations as mandated by EU regulations, national laws, or other normative sources. In particular, the Data Controller may process your data to comply with accounting and tax obligations (e.g., invoicing, issuance of online tickets).

For purposes (a) and (b), the provision of data is mandatory for the conclusion and execution of the contract.

c) Consent for the use of images (Art. 9(2)(a) GDPR):

With your explicit consent, the Company may use your personal data, specifically images or videos depicting you, on the institutional website, social networks (e.g., Facebook, Instagram, YouTube), printed informational materials, videos, or publications promoting the activities carried out. This processing is solely for the purpose of describing and promoting institutional activities, in compliance with the provisions of the GDPR and Italian Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, as well as the guidelines of the EU Commission and the Italian Data Protection Authority.

4. Processing Methods and Principles

Processing will be carried out in compliance with the GDPR and Italian Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 ("Personal Data Protection Code"), adhering to principles of lawfulness, fairness, transparency, adequacy, and relevance. Data will be processed using both paper and electronic methods by authorized personnel, with the adoption of appropriate protective measures to ensure data security and confidentiality. No automated decision-making processes will be employed.

5. Categories of Third Parties to Whom Data May Be Disclosed

Data may be disclosed to entities (natural and/or legal persons, public and/or private) appointed to perform services where such communication is necessary or functional to its execution (e.g., companies handling IT maintenance, event management, document publication, video production). Where necessary, entities processing data on behalf of the Company will be appointed as External Data Processors pursuant to Art. 28 GDPR.

6. Duration of Processing and Data Retention Period

Data collected for event participation will be retained for 2 years following the event.

Images will be stored for archival purposes after their collection and possible publication, and processed until consent is withdrawn.

7. Transfer of Data Outside the European Union

The collected data will not be transferred to countries outside the European Union.

8. Rights of the Data Subject

As a data subject, you may exercise the rights provided in Articles 15 and following of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, including:

Right of access, rectification, integration, and deletion of data, portability, restriction of processing, and withdrawal of consent

- a) Under Regulation (EU) 2016/679, you have the right to request access to your personal data from the Data Controller, as well as the right to request their rectification, integration, or deletion. The Data Controller will provide a written response, including via electronic means, within 30 days of receiving your request.
- b) You also have the right to object to the processing of your data or request its restriction, where there are legitimate reasons, and in the cases provided for under Articles 18 and 21 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.
- c) You may withdraw your consent to data processing at any time, for the purposes specified in this notice.
- d) Finally, you have the right to data portability, allowing you to request the Data Controller to transmit your personal data to another controller. To exercise the above rights, simply use one of the contact details of the Data Controller indicated in point 1.

Right to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory Authority

You have the right to file a complaint with the Supervisory Authority if you believe that your personal data is being processed unlawfully or contrary to applicable legislative provisions.
